MIDNIGHT AT THE DEMON BAR & GRILL

My former Sunday School preacher often warned us about the presence of demons and the necessity of remaining vigilant against their potential deceptions.

Although he was somewhat accurate, these demons do not serve a single malevolent force (the Step-children of the Great Satan); instead, they seem to be independent, rouge, hooligan entities from the Multiverse who have unlawfully tapped into Earth's Harmonic Frequency via a consumer-grade Harmonic Frequency Modular (HFM) Device that has been illicitly modified by an underground technician.

This activity is highly illegal, yet the frequency of reported demon sightings suggests that enforcement by Multiverse authorities is rare, largely due to the absence of treaty agreements between the Corporate Congress of the Eight remedies sold in his popular gift shop.

Over several cups of the finest Cuban Rum from the KitKat Gentleman Club and Laundamat's best, cleanest bathtub, he elaborated on the issue of the demon invasion.
As a level #43 master, he possessed a complimentary day pass to the lower tiers of the Multiverse and the authority to wield an unblocked HFM device.
He demonstrated that by slightly adjusting my harmonic frequency, I could not only perceive but also interact with these so-called demons. During a gathering at a venue known as a "Demon Bar & Grill," I realized that these Multiverse troublemakers are no more malevolent than English football fans at a championship match in France or Italy, and most were oblivious to the fact that CIS Humans might actually act on their half-hearted suggestions,
